

Readiness Checklist

Are you ready to bring a City of Refuge to your community?

Thank you for downloading this checklist. You are one step closer to bringing light, hope, and transformation to your community. While launching a City of Refuge is a rewarding journey - it is also a very challenging one that requires full dedication and the willingness to put in hard work. This checklist will help you evaluate your interest (or the interest of a potential leader) before taking the next steps.

The following criteria should be considered by yourself or someone you know that will lead the launch effort within your community.

- You have a strong connection within your community and have a proven track record of service within it.
- You feel called to make an impact in the lives of those who are experiencing extreme poverty / have limited opportunities.
- You are aware of unmet vulnerabilities/needs in your community related to homelessness, joblessness, education, health & wellness?
- You are able to generate a list of professional references that will vouch for your reputation as a leader and member of your community.
- You are familiar with the transformation model developed at City of Refuge and believe in its impact.
- You have reviewed the launch playbook demo and are aware of the initial steps required to launch a City of Refuge
- You or someone you know within your community has the time needed to spearhead a launch effort.
- You are willing to pursue this project with limited compensation (up to 6 months)
